

The Daily Gazetteer:

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8. 1738.

No. 819.

LETTERS from Ratisbon say, that the Affair of the Reparation of the Fortresses of Philipsburg and Kehl, was again proposed some Days ago in the College of Princes and that of the Electors. Several of the Members in the College of Princes, were for granting a new Subsidy of 8

Roman Months for the said Repairs; but that it was necessary at the same time to discharge the Arrears of those already granted, and to employ the whole Sum for the Purpose to which they were given. They represented, that as the Preservation of Fort Kehl was in their Opinion more hurtful than profitable to the Empire, they were of Opinion, that the said Fort ought to be demolished. The same thing being proposed in the College of Electors by the Hanover Minister, that of Saxony declared, That his Court would think itself dispensed with from contributing to the Repair of the said Fortresses, since it had still great Sums to expect for the Indemnity which had been promised them, for the Invasion of the Electorate of Saxony by the Swedes in the Reign of Charles XII. The Variety of Sentiments upon this Subject, hinder'd their coming to any Conclusion, so that the Affair was adjourn'd to the next Session. The Princess Anne Victoria of Soissons, Niece and Heiress of the late Prince Eugene of Savoy, has wrote a second Letter to the Dyet, requesting that Assembly to order her the Payment of the Residue of the two Roman Months, which were yearly granted to that Prince during the Campaigns of 1734 and 1735 upon the Rhine, and of which he received but 48,000 Florins: But the Sums which the States of the Empire are obliged to furnish as well for the War with the Turks, as for the Repair of the Fortresses on the Rhine, make it very much doubted, whether the Claim of this Princess can be so soon decided. The Protestant Body at the Dyet has received a Letter from the Count de Wolfstein, in the Name of the Protestants of the Duchy of Neubourg, wherein he represents, that if proper Measures are not taken to obtain a Redress of their Grievances, the Protestant Religion will run the Hazard of being intirely abolished in that Duchy.

Letters of the 23d ult. from Copenhagen say, that a Written Paper was delivered to his Danish Majesty, as he was viewing the Docks, by a Person unknown, which being afterwards examined, was burnt by the Common Hangman: And the King has offered his Pardon to any Person whosoever, that shall avow it within the Space of six Weeks.

From Rome they write, that the Chevalier de St. George has sent one of his Gentlemen to the Sacred College and the Nobility, to acquaint them of the Death of his Father-in-Law Prince James Sobieski, who 'tis still said has left the Bulk of his Estate to the Chevalier's Eldest Son: And that the Duke of Turfus is come thither from Genoa, to oppose the Divorce which his Duchess has for some time sued for, on Pretence that Nature has form'd him for other Occupation than that of getting Children.

Letters of the 10th ult. O. S. from Madrid say, the Court has order'd two Squadrons to be fitted out at Cadix, consisting each of 6 Men of War, to be commanded by the Admirals Spinoia and Giustaniani, and that they are probably to sail to the East Indies, if certain Negotiations that are on the Tapis at that and another Court, have not the expected Success.

The French Letters say, they have advice from Constantinople, by the Way of Jassy in Moldavia, that the Grand Seignior held an extraordinary and very numerous Divan, in which he declared, that as 'twas his earnest Desire to procure his People Ease and Tranquillity, he was still sincerely dispos'd for a Peace; but that if before the Opening of the Campaign, his Enemies did not propose more acceptable Terms to him than those which they had already offered him, he would head his Army in Person, take all the Janissaries of his Guard with him, and only leave a Detachment of his Guards at Constantinople. The same Advices say, that the Garrison of that Capital is to be reinforced by 20,000 Men out of the new Levies in Asia, that they actually talk at the Seraglio of preparing the Grand Seignior's Field

Equipage, and that he has order'd the Fleet on the Black Sea to be reinforced with 22 Men of War.

The following Letter from Sturgard, gives a more particular Account than any yet published, of the Execution of Joseph Sus the Jew, who was Privy Counsellor, &c. to the late Duke of Wirtemberg.

Having been a Prisoner at Sturgard ever since the 19th of January, he was taken thence the 24th, and carried to a Hall where the Commissioners sat at a Table cover'd with a Carpet of the Colour of Blood. As soon as he perceived them, he fell on his Knees, and in the most submissive Terms begg'd them to pardon him. But instead of that, they commanded him to hold his Peace and to hear his Sentenceread. Upon that he rose from the Ground and heard it pa'd on him, without uttering a Word, till the Reader came to that Part of it, where 'tis said he was to be hang'd for having strove to ruin the Country. Then he began with a piteful Tone to exclaim against the Sentence, and ray'd at last to such a Degree, that the Executioner was oblig'd to order his Men to clap their Hands upon his Mouth. After the Sentence was read to the End, the White Rod or Wand was broke, and the Pieces thrown at his Feet, as is the Manner in Germany, in the like Cases.

The Jew was then remanded to his Prison, where the last Meal he had to make was prepared for him: But being so fullen that he would not eat, he was carried out into the Street, where, notwithstanding he made great Resistance, he was forced by the Executioner's Servants into a Cart, and fasten'd to it by one Foot and both Arms. He had a Waistcoat, a Vest, and Breeches of Scarlet, edg'd with a Gold Lace, White Silk Stockings that were spick and span New, a Holland Shirt without Ruffles, a fair Perruke, and a plain edg'd Hat. A Company of Grenadiers march'd before the Cart, as did one behind, and one on each Side of it, besides the Executioner's Servants, one of whom carried a Piece of Bread, and another a Bottle of Wine with a Glass. The Cart stopped about the Midway, when the Jew was asked if he would refresh himself with a Piece of Bread and a Glass of Wine; but he refused both, saying they only made a Jest of him. When he came under the Gallows, which was surrounded by 100 of the City Guards on Horseback, his Shoes were pull'd off, and nothing else, only by the Resistance he made when he was to mount the Ladder, his Perruke and Hat fell to the Ground. When he was got up half way the Ladder, he turn'd towards the People with a Design, as it appeared, to make a Speech to them; but on the one hand the Beat of Drums hinder'd it from being heard, and on the other hand the Executioner did not allow him Time to go on, but tuck'd him by main Force to the Top of the Ladder, and then turned him off, leaving him suspended to an Iron Gibber, from whence he was put into an Iron Cage, as has been already said, secured by 3 Padlocks and a great Chain.

From the London Gazette.

Vienna, Feb. 1. N. S. Count Colorado set out on the 28th inst for Manheim, where he is to be before the 10th Instant, in order to deliver to the Elector a Memorial about Bergue and Juliers, and afterwards he is to go to several other Courts of the Empire. M. Zech, the Saxon Envoy, is to leave this Court this Spring, and M. Erff, who was formerly in his Britannick Majesty's Service as Elector, and who has actually been made Counsellor of State to the King of Poland, will succeed Baron Zech. M. de Lenthé, that King's Electoral Minister, arrived here on Wednesday last, and he is now busy in taking his Audiences, and making his first Visits of Ceremony to all the Ministers.

Dresden, Feb. 5. N. S. M. Fuenclara, who is to come hither with the Character of Ambassador, and Plenipotentiary both from Spain and Naples, has sent a Messenger to this Court from Vienna, desiring Passports from this Place; and he writes, that he designs to set out from Vienna the 15th Inst and has sent Don Carlos's Picture for the Princess Maria Amelia. The King has given Orders to the Council of War, to take an exact Account of the Number of his Forces, which, it is supposed, is in order to find Means in what Manner they may recruit their Troops in Hungary; though it is not said that this Court is as yet come to any Agreement with the Imperial Court thereupon.

Hague, Feb. 14. N. S. There have been of late in Guelderland some Disorders between some of the Subjects of that Province, and those of the King of Prussia, a certain Number of the first having enter'd the Territory of that King, and violently taken away the Goods adjudged for Debts, belonging to a private Man, who had retired thither with those Goods from Guelderland: Which Proceeding will certainly occasion some Complaints from the King of Prussia, and is generally disapproved here.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

Which in a few Days infallibly cure

HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies, and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimic, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a deprav'd Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, Belchings, Cholick, Uneasiness in the Bowels, and ill Humors, which offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinaacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, their so-much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and cheerful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, near Stocks-Market, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions.

The uncommon Success, above Thirty Years last past, of the so much fam'd and only true Original

ROYAL CHYMICAL WASH-BALL,

FOR beautifying the Face, Neck and Hands; hath induced many Envious Persons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the Country, to sell a Counterfeit White Ball (which may prove prejudicial, as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.

To prevent as much as possible any Mistakes in Prejudice to our Customers, we give this special Notice, That the True Sort are now sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, in Cornhill; and at Mrs. B. y, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mrs. Giles's, a Milliner, at the Blue Ball near Hercules Pillars Alley, by the Temple in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Ball, or 13 to the Dozen; but no Allowance for less than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be sold any where else, except Notice be first given in these Advertisements of it.

Their true and real Virtues have been sufficiently attested in all the Years that they have been Sold by Publication, and the more so, as they are still more than ever used and admired by both Sexes of the best Quality, and many Thousands of Gentry and others, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralleled by any Wash or Wash-ball, &c. of any Kind or Form; for these Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ringworms, Morpew, Sunburn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits, or Redness of the Small-Pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness; they soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury, and may be eaten for their Safety.
